you want to host an SMTP/POP3 email server to monitor incoming email messages. Q: How to make div 100% height with a text within it? How to make the div height 100% even if the content within is high? For example the content contains an image, and it should be 1.5 times the height of the content. I have added the background, but it appears the text inside the div is not 100%.

How to make it so? A
