A big ice berg on the distant island of Spitsbergen, turns out to be the worst thing that can happen to Alexei. A monster bears him, dragging him through the mountains and into a hungry cave. Can you escape the cave? Find the way out? And most importantly, how to save the girl who has just become a friend? Features: First-Person Gameplay: You play as Alexei, who first discovers the giant ice berg on the distant island of Spitsbergen, and then becomes the only person to save a girl from the bear. Using a snowmobile, you will be able to explore the frozen landscape and meet lots of cute animals and friendly NPCs. Collect Items: Find as many of useful items as you can. Collect boards, doors, hammers, saws, picks, fruit, bullets, eggs, vials, nails, tinder, and beakers. Get enough and you can unlock a bonus stage with fast and furious action. The more extras you get the more fun you will have with Alexei. Cinematic Cutscenes: The film industry is back, but not on the screen. The characters you meet in your journey, will react to the events you create around them. True to life Character: You play as Alexei, a young boy who wants to join the army. However, after experiencing a turbulent life, Alexei gives up his dream. Instead of choosing a career, he soon finds himself caught up in a race against time to rescue a girl from the jaws of a bear. Foreplay: After the excitement caused by the bear, Alexei is now looking for fun. But in a distant city, a young girl is missing and she is growing too hungry and cold to even think about another roll. Alexei feels sorry for her, so he decides to help her with a kind gesture. - - Cool Game By Gabis I played this game at the short lived game store. I remember one of the girls trying to fuck it up. She changed the name when she took it into a "gaming store" as that's what it is supposed to be for. That in itself is not a deal breaker but it was her fault. Another thing she did was change the ending (think something was wrong so she just kept on trying again and again to find a particular path) and not telling the mods the game name was changed and said the name is

What's new in Fractured Minds:

et Released The latest update of RPG Maker MV includes the Winter Village Tileset, based on a modified version of the Cityscape Tileset. This Tileset features new Placement, Environment, and GFX resources, as well as new... ... and moody music! Winter Village Background The Winter Village Tileset is released today, and is based on the Cityscape tileset that we previously released for RPG Maker MV. Each Winter Village frame is made up of 250 square tiles that can be moved anywhere in the map. Buildings are made up of a frame and a tile, and have their own attribute values. Nearby tile bank buildings all have the same attribute values, so a player will be able to place as many tile banks as possible without interfering with others. Winter Village Placement The Winter Village placement sequence is different from the Cityscape placement sequence, where the player can place buildings anywhere. Winter Village buildings are placed vertically, and must be placed to the north of other buildings. Buildings can be placed on top of tiles already placed, as long as the new tile isn't blocked. When there is a supply tile in an area, tiles in the Winter Village placement area are checked first to see if a new building can be placed there. Since supply tiles are checked after blocking tiles, supply tileless areas cannot be blocked. Given that supply tiles are checked first, construction drops will be returned as tile banks if the placer would like to construct supply tiles in a currently supply tileless area. Winter Village Building Resource The Winter Village Tileset uses both the Town and Township resource. Town Town - The Town resource is no longer used, and is not compatible with free-to-play or premium tiers. Towns use the Economy, Industry, Town, Medical, and Military resource types. Towns have a tile bank, but can be built in any tile bank building spot where no tile banks are already present.
